The church has a hearing loop and LARGE PRINT service sheets. Please ask a sidesman.
During communion, please avoid talking, if possible, until after the post communion prayers. The silence is appreciated, particularly as some people may receive at their places.

Welcome to the Church of St Andrew Church of England

18th July 2010
7th Sunday after Trinity

There is need of only one thing

9.45 am Eucharist with Holy Baptism

President: Revd Teresa Munro
(Hon Asst Curate)
Preacher: Tony King (Reader)

Hymns: 207; 337; 376; Christ be our light

We rejoice with Emily Jessica Davey on this her day of baptism and we hold her parents and godparents in our prayers. We welcome Martin Stuart as our organist today.

Communicant members of other Churches are invited to receive Holy Communion at this service. Alternatively, please come forward at the time of communion for a blessing, keeping your hands below the rail as you kneel or stand.

There are toilet and baby changing facilities through the glass partition to the right. The red carpeted area in the North aisle is for babies or young toddlers, and a crèche room for parents/ toddlers is available near the entrance if necessary.

All are welcome to stay on for Fairtrade coffee/ tea and biscuits in the hall.

Next Sunday: 25th July
8th Sunday after Trinity
9.45 am Parish Eucharist

COLLECT

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

FIRST READING: Genesis 18.1–10a

A reading from the book of Genesis.

The LORD appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground.

He said, 'My lord, if I find favour with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on – since you have come to your servant.'

So they said, 'Do as you have said.' And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, 'Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes.'

Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

They said to him, 'Where is your wife Sarah?' And he said, 'There, in the tent.'

Then one said, 'I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son.'

This is the word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Luke 10.38–42

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All sing: Glory to you, O Lord.

Now as Jesus and his disciples went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to Jesus and asked, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me.'

But the Lord answered her, 'Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.'

This is the gospel of the Lord.

All sing: Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER:

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live: may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever,

Amen
